

Revelation in Sound: Analyzing Nathaniel Bassey's Tracks on Spotify

This Lagos based singer-songwriter and trumpeter has endeared himself to Christians and fans of good music all over the world by delivering a peculiar style of worship music that speaks of the saving grace of Jesus Christ.

At the core of Nathaniel's music is the heart of a true worshiper. His lyrical mastery is submerged in a deep understanding of the holy scriptures, and the message of the bible - Jesus. The impeccable musicianship is swaddled in majestic horn lines that inspire any audience to worship.

He has released 5 albums which include hit singles like "Imela", "Someone's at the Door", "Casting Crowns", "No Other God" and "This God is Too Good" where he featured Micah Stampley.

Nathaniel was featured alongside the Grammy-nominated Travis Greene on the song Nothing Like Your Presence - Live From Chattanooga, TN a track on William McDowell's latest album The Cry: A Live Worship Experience

His most recent album HALLELUYAH LIVE was released in March 2023.
